

Celebrating Oregon Film & Film as a Collaborative Art

May 1-10, 2009

at Marylhurst University

Presenting sponsor

Calendar of Events (as of 4/24/09)

Location for all events: Marylhurst University, 17600 SW Pacific Highway (Highway 43)
(except opening night) (One mile south of Lake Oswego)

Visit www.muofilmfest.com for special ticket packages and more film festival details

May 1 Opening night Mission Theater ♦ 1624 NW Glisan ♦ Portland

6 p.m./Doors 5:30 p.m.	Reception with screenwriter Mike Rich, animator Bill Plympton and Marylhurst President Judi Johansen	$15 general admission $5 students/seniors (includes both events)
7 p.m.	James Ivory & Gus Van Sant, in conversation (featuring clips from Ivory films)
8:30 p.m.	Special preview clip from The City of Your Final Destination (2009) directed by James Ivory

May 2 Celebrating Film Collaboration: Screenwriting

4 p.m. James Ivory Theater	Curators' Talk: Dennis Nyback & Anne Richardson	Free
5:30 p.m. James Ivory Theater	Festival opening party: James Ivory in person	$10 general admission $5 students/seniors (includes film and reception)
7 p.m. James Ivory Theater	Screening: Shakespeare Wallah (1965) Directed (and introduced) by James Ivory

May 3 Celebrating Animation $30 all-day pass

10 a.m. James Ivory Theater	Bill Plympton's Guide to Oregon Animation History, Part I	$10 general admission $5 students/seniors
1 p.m. James Ivory Theater	Bill Plympton's Guide to Oregon Animation History, Part II	$10 general admission $5 students/seniors
4 p.m. James Ivory Theater	Master Class: Bill Plympton	$10 general admission $5 students/seniors
5:30 The Art Gym	Reception with Bill Plympton	Free
7 p.m. James Ivory Theater	Screening: Idiots and Angels (2008) Directed by Bill Plympton	$10 general admission $5 students/seniors

May 4 Celebrating Film Collaboration: Acting

7 p.m. James Ivory Theater	Screening: Marked Woman (1937) Directed by Lloyd Bacon Guest speaker: Visual artist Marne Lucas	$10 general admission $5 students/seniors
Following screening James Ivory Theater	Discussion -Dennis Nyback's Secret Cinema: Marked Woman

May 5 Celebrating Film Collaboration: Visual Arts

5:30 The Art Gym	Reception with Ted Savinar	Free
7 p.m. James Ivory Theater	Screening: Talk Radio (1988) Directed by Oliver Stone Guest speaker: Playwright Tad Savinar	$10 general admission $5 students/seniors
Following screening James Ivory Theater	Discussion –Dennis Nyback’s Secret Cinema: Talk Radio

May 6 Celebrating Documentary

7 p.m. James Ivory Theater	Screening: The Soldier’s Tale (2007) Directed by Penny Allen Guest speaker: Oregon National Guardsman John Faler	$10 general admission $5 students/seniors
Following screening James Ivory Theater	Discussion –Dennis Nyback’s Secret Cinema: The Soldier’s Tale

May 7 Celebrating Film Collaboration: Location

7 p.m. James Ivory Theater	Screening: The Lusty Men (1952) Directed by Nicholas Ray Guest speaker: Mystery guest – role of location in films	$10 general admission $5 students/seniors
Following screening James Ivory Theater	Discussion – Dennis Nyback’s Secret Cinema: The Lusty Men

May 8 Celebrating Film Collaboration: Music

7 p.m. James Ivory Theater	Screening: City Girl (1930) Directed by F.W. Murnau New score composed by Marylhurst University Music Dept. Chair John Paul and performed by a local quartet	$10 general admission $5 students/seniors
8:30 p.m. Old Library	Post-screening reception for John Paul	Free

May 9 Celebrating Film Collaboration: Directing

11 a.m. Heritage Center	Sisters’ Home Movies	Free – RSVP to Kelly Ann Lee kalee@marylhurst.edu
1 p.m. Flavia Hall	Post-screening luncheon honoring the Sisters
2 p.m. James Ivory Theater	35 Years of Prize-Winning Shorts from the Northwest Film & Video Festival ; guest speaker Thomas Phillipson, of The Northwest Film Center	$10 general admission $5 students/seniors
4 p.m. James Ivory Theater	Curators’ Talk: Dennis Nyback & Anne Richardson	Free
7 p.m. James Ivory Theater	Screening: Smoke Signals (1998) Directed by Chris Eyre	$10 general admission $5 students/seniors
Following screening	Discussion with Chris Eyre

May 10 Celebrating Oregon Filmmakers

All activities free at James Ivory Theater

1 p.m.	Panel Discussion: Everyone’s a Critic Portland film writers critique festival selections and show clips from their favorite Oregon films
3:15 p.m.	Screening: Salmon Poet (documentary in progress)
4 p.m.	Panel Discussion: Portland Before Video Portland historians and artists discuss the influences that produced our cinema-saturated city
5:30 – 7:30 p.m.	Barbeque Dinner (for purchase)
7 p.m.	Gold Coyote Super Short Film & Video Awards Ceremony
8:30 p.m.	Festival closing night party